CIRCULAR

“Amori” is a feature film in Konkani on the issue of environment and water conservation. The film has also won a national award.

As you all aware that the depletion of environment/water resources is presently posing a serious threat to our very existence. A time has, therefore, come that we better be serious to educate and mould the minds of our youngsters to realize the truth and gear up themselves for this new challenge as future citizens.

The film mentioned above propagates the message of environment/water conservation to the children.

Therefore all the Heads of Govt./Govt., Aided/Unaided schools may decide to show the film to the students who are interested in watching the Konkani feature film “Amori” wherein no financial liability will accrue to this Directorate.

Balrath buses may be utilized for the purpose accompanied by sufficient number of teachers as per directives wherein the interested students are more than 40 in each case.
