24/6/2005

This office vide the circular mentioned above directed that one of the P. T. A. member will inspect and test the quality and quantity of food distributed to the students before its distributed.

It is observed that during above inspection active participation of mothers are quite less.

With the object to encourage and empower the mothers it is decided to ask the mother of the child to supervise feeding of Mid-Day Meal and act as volunteers.

All the field level officer and P. T. A. are requested to encourage mothers to supervise the Mid-Day Meal by spending some time in the schools during the distribution of Mid-Day Meals.
