As a part of Constitution Week celebrations initiated by Hon. Governor of Goa, Dr. (Smt.) Mridula Sinha, an on the spot essay writing competition on “The Constitution: Possibilities and Challenges” is being organized for school students from Class IX to XII on 24/1/2019 at 11.00am at the Department of Political Science, Faculty Bloc B, Goa University, Taleigao, Plateau, Goa.

Rules and regulations are as follows:-

- One student from each school can participate.
- Essay would consist of around 750-1000 words in neat handwriting sharing with the Governor what does the student feel about the importance of the Constitution, which are the provisions that attract him/her the most, does he/she see any challenges to the Constitution and how to overcome them. Any other original idea is welcome.
- The top three winners will be awarded at a function to be held at Raj Bhavan on 26th January, 2019.
- Interested schools must send their entries indicating Name of the student, Class, School, address and phone number to hodpol@unigao.ac.in Tel. 8669609152, Office of Department of Political Science, Goa University, Taleigao Plateau, Goa on or before 23rd January, 2019 by 5.00pm.

It is therefore enjoined upon all the Heads of the Secondary & Higher Secondary schools to select their student and motivate them to participate in the above ‘on the spot essay competition’.
